++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Cloudy and wet for much of the day.

Today:
It will be cloudy with rain, sleet and snow slowly pushing eastwards through the day, snow mainly confined to higher ground in the east. Becoming clearer behind in the west during the afternoon. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Tonight:
The remnants of the rain band will clear the east during the first part of the night to leave largely clear skies, however fog patches are likely to form behind. Minimum temperature -3 deg C (27 deg F).

Friday:
Early fog may be slow to clear but otherwise it will be fine and dry tomorrow with sunny spells, turning increasingly cloudy later. Maximum temperature 3 deg C (37 deg F).

Outlook for Saturday to Monday:
Rain, sleet and snow slowly pushing eastwards through Saturday, drier by evening in the west. Largely dry and fine on Sunday but further wet weather likely on Monday.
